

What to do today

IMPORTANT! Parent or Carer – Read this page with your child and check that you are happy with what they have to do and with any weblinks or use of the Internet required.

1. Story time

Go to <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DY9z6BH682Y&t=5s> and listen to the reading of Willy the Wimp by Anthony Browne.

- Do you feel sorry for Willy in the story? Why?

2. Using bullet points in a list

Think about all the things that Willy does in the story to get fit and strong. What other things could he have done?

- On a sheet titled Getting Fit and Strong, make a list: play football, do ballet, go swimming, eat salad, etc.
- Use bullet points for each item in your list.
- Draw a person doing your favourite activity from your list. Write punctuated sentences describing how you do that activity and why it makes you healthy.

3. Writing about characters

Think about what Willy is like at the beginning of the story and what he is like at the end.

- On a page titled How Willy Changes, draw pictures of Willy when he is a wimp and then when he is brave.
- Write sentences to go with each picture.
- Use different Conjunctions to link ideas together.

Now try this Fun-Time Extra

- In the story Willy is brave. On a page titled A Time when I was Brave, write about a time you were brave. Draw a picture to go with your writing.

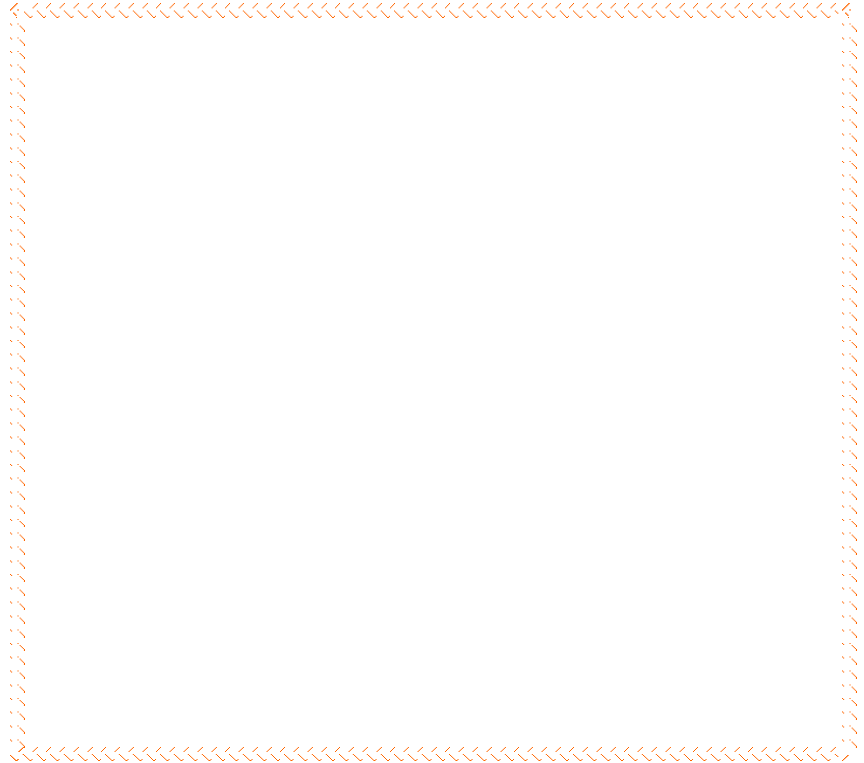

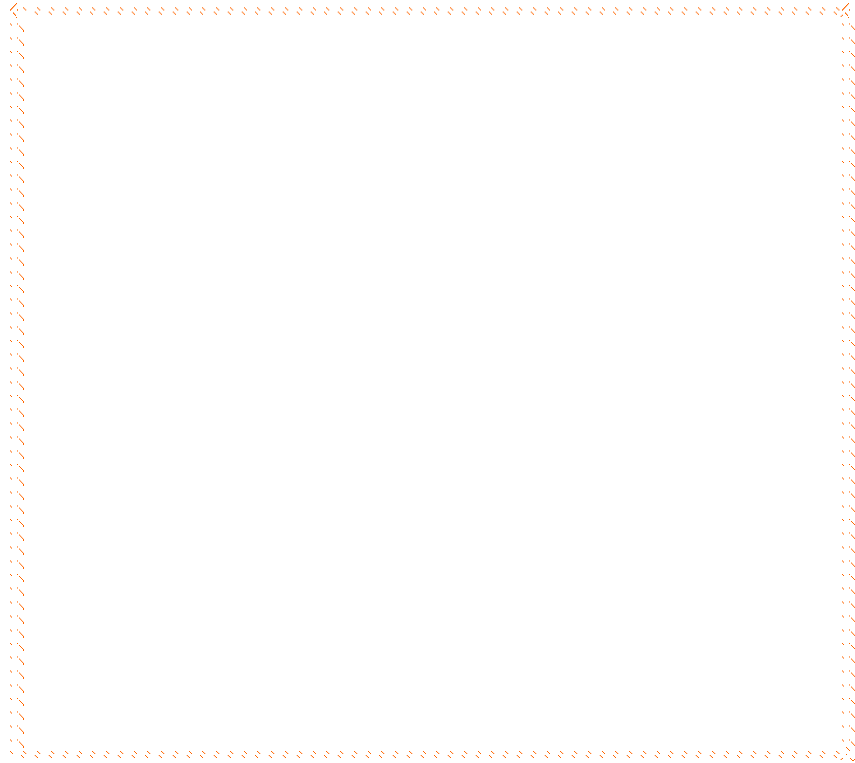

Getting Fit and Strong

Playing football

How Willy Changes

Conjunctions

Use these conjunctions to link ideas together in your sentences.

and but so when because although

At the beginning Willy is very timid and he always says sorry.

In the end Willy is much braver but he is still kind to his friends.

Willy changes because he wants to be brave and strong, although he doesn't want to be a bully himself.

A Time when I was Brave

A writing area with a colorful puzzle-piece border and horizontal lines. The border is composed of interlocking puzzle pieces in shades of blue, yellow, red, and green. The writing area consists of eight horizontal lines on a white background, providing space for text.