

Wednesday 8th July - What to do today

IMPORTANT! Parent or Carer – Read this page with your child and check that you are happy with what they have to do and with any weblinks or use of the Internet required. Prepare a page for the lost poster.

1. Story time

Open <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jNOYgRf5jes>.

- Listen to the first half of Dogger by Shirley Hughes, up to when Dogger goes missing (about 3 mins 30 secs in).
- How is Dave feeling at this point in the story?

2. Making a 'Lost' poster

Read the Lost poster for a missing rag doll called Jemima. You are going to create a 'Lost' poster for Dogger.

- On the poster template, draw Dogger. Explain what happened to him.
- Describe Dogger using good adjectives and adverbs.
- Say how you, Dave, are feeling about not having him.
- Offer a reward for his safe return.

3. Writing about a really precious toy

Dogger is Dave's most precious toy. Think of a really precious toy you have.

- On My Most Precious Toy, say what your precious toy is. Describe it.
- Think of three reasons why it is so special. Use the conjunctions because, since and as to help explain each of the reasons it is important to you: I love it because... It's important to me as...
- Underneath your writing, do a drawing of your toy.

Now try this Fun-Time Extra

- On a page titled Don't Worry, suggest the calming and kind advice you would give to someone who had lost a very special toy.
- On a page titled My Bedroom Toys, draw and write about what your bed looks like at nighttime – is it like Bella's bed with all her teddies crammed in it?

LOST

Have you seen my favourite rag doll, Jemima?

I think I might have dropped her in the park or at the shops.

She has long orange hair and a very cheeky grin. Her dress is blue and red and she is wearing a pair of natty velvet boots. Although she isn't very big, she has left a huge hole in my heart by getting lost and I really miss her. She helps me to get to sleep at night – and also makes sure none of my other toys misbehave!

If anyone sees Jemima, please telephone 0772 678911.

There is a reward of £5 for anyone who helps me get her back.

Thank you!

LOST

My Most Precious Toy

because since as

A large rectangular area for writing, framed by a decorative border of colorful puzzle pieces in shades of blue, yellow, orange, and red. The interior of the frame is divided into eight horizontal lines, providing space for a child to write their response.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin orange border, intended for drawing or additional writing related to the child's response.

Don't Worry

A large white rectangular area with horizontal lines, framed by a decorative border of colorful puzzle pieces. The puzzle pieces are in shades of blue, yellow, orange, and red, arranged in a repeating pattern. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the writing area.
